

Intermediate Farm Accountant:

PKF Carr & Stanton is a leading accountancy and business advisory firm in Hastings. We pride ourselves on being locally owned, internationally connected and outcome focused. We thrive on building relationships with our clients and identifying new opportunities.

Our Farming Growth team, a specialist division of PKF Carr & Stanton, are committed business advisers with a focus on farming success. We understand what makes a rural business different and specialise in providing accurate financial information and advice to support rural businesses over the long term. This area of our business is experiencing phenomenal growth and as a result we are looking to further expand our team.

We currently have an opportunity for a full time, rural focussed, Intermediate Accountant to join our team. This role will be interesting, challenging, rewarding and offers the opportunity to further develop knowledge and experience of the rural sector. Key responsibilities will include; preparation of financial statements, fostering key client relationships, providing accounting system advice, preparing tax returns, budgets, cash flows and benchmarking.

The person that we are looking for will ideally have 3+ years experience working within a NZ CA firm, have a farming background and have a real passion for the rural sector. Our ideal candidate will enjoy client contact, building relationships, will be a team player, be driven to succeed, be proactive and will be continuously looking to make improvements.

At PKF Carr & Stanton our core values extend to every aspect of our business and provide the foundations for behaviour, attitude and decision making. These values define our business culture and are key drivers to achieving our goals and helping clients to achieve theirs. Our core values are about – driving growth, building relationships, exceeding expectations, making it fun and having a good life balance.

We take pride in our family like culture and empowering and developing our team members to be the best that they can. If this role sounds like you and you are looking to join a great team in the fabulous Hawke's Bay please contact us on 06 876 8124 or email us at lisa.mason@pkfcs.co.nz.
